

The Seahorse and Starfish room have been very busy planting their own root vegetables. They are observing and investigating how these grow and how vegetables are healthy and nutritious for us to eat. We hope to use our carrots, parsnips and leeks to make a nice pot of St John's home made soup for our snack.

