

The Starfish room has opened back up again for our two year olds. The children have been exploring all the areas and building new friendships engaging with their peers both indoors and outdoors.

