

Welcome back Starfish children

We had a great first week back in the Starfish room. The Starfish children were very happy to see all their friends again and have been busy around the nursery room and outside in the nursery garden. It has been amazing having them back again in our nursery.

