This week we continued our sensory play in the Starfish room.
We focused on our sense of touch and had shaving foam on our tuff tray. We made Gloop (cornflour and water) and explored how it changes textures and how it feels and we made spaghetti and jelly and the children said it felt "sticky".

