

This week the Starfish children have been busy getting ready for Halloween. 🎃 We have been making ghost pictures with our feet and spiders with our handprints. The children have also been making pumpkins with paper plates, paints and felt.

